

QUEENSLAND THEATRE

Queensland Theatre's Legal Chapter proudly supports the Play Commissioning Fund and the development of iconic new Australian work.

The Legal Chapter is a group of legal professionals whose love of language and theatre inspires them to support the essential work of Queensland Theatre's Play Commissioning Fund. The Fund supports playwrights and encourages the development of new, ground-breaking works of theatre that are uniquely Australian. Legal Chapter performances and pre-show functions will take place on Thursday nights in 2019. Shows and dates below:

Death of a Salesman

Thursday 21 February

6:30pm Function

7:30pm Performance

Playhouse, QPAC

By Arthur Miller

Directed by Sam Strong

ORD MINNETT

The requiem for the American Dream that defined the 20th Century

Arthur Miller's towering classic is a timeless meditation on the human need to feel special, a withering commentary on capitalism, and a tragic portrait of a fallout between father and son.

Barbara and the Camp Dogs

Thursday 16 May

6:30pm Function

7:30pm Performance

Bille Brown Theatre, Queensland Theatre

By Ursula Yovich and Alana Valentine

Directed by Leticia Cáceres

 belvoir

A rock'n'roll family reunion that will break your heart and fill it with songs

Part madcap buddy comedy, part electrifying rock gig, and part clarion call against the taint of inequality, this effervescent play with songs sold out its original season at Sydney's Belvoir. Now it's set to charm the pants off Brisbane.

Storm Boy

Thursday 1 August

6:30pm Function

7:30pm Performance

Playhouse, QPAC

Based on the novel by Colin Thiele

Adapted by Tom Holloway

Directed by Sam Strong

ORD MINNETT

 Griffith UNIVERSITY

The beloved Australian novel given a delightful new stage life

During a long summer, Storm Boy makes two friends who will shepherd him from childhood into adulthood: the jester Fingerbone Bill, who teaches him about his country; and Mr Percival, an orphaned pelican who prepares Storm Boy for the wider world with a poignant lesson about love, loss and letting go.
