Bille Brown Theatre

Named in honour of the acclaimed Queensland actor and playwright, Bille Brown, our recently renovated state-of-the-art and technically sophisticated theatre is suited for drama, dance, music, film launches, panel discussions, conferences and AGMs. The Foyer and Courtyard are included in your hire, and are ideal for catering and break out spaces. Tech specifications available on request. A Council car park is located adjacent to the theatre and metered parking is available along Merivale Street, with other parking available in nearby streets.

Diane Cilento Studio

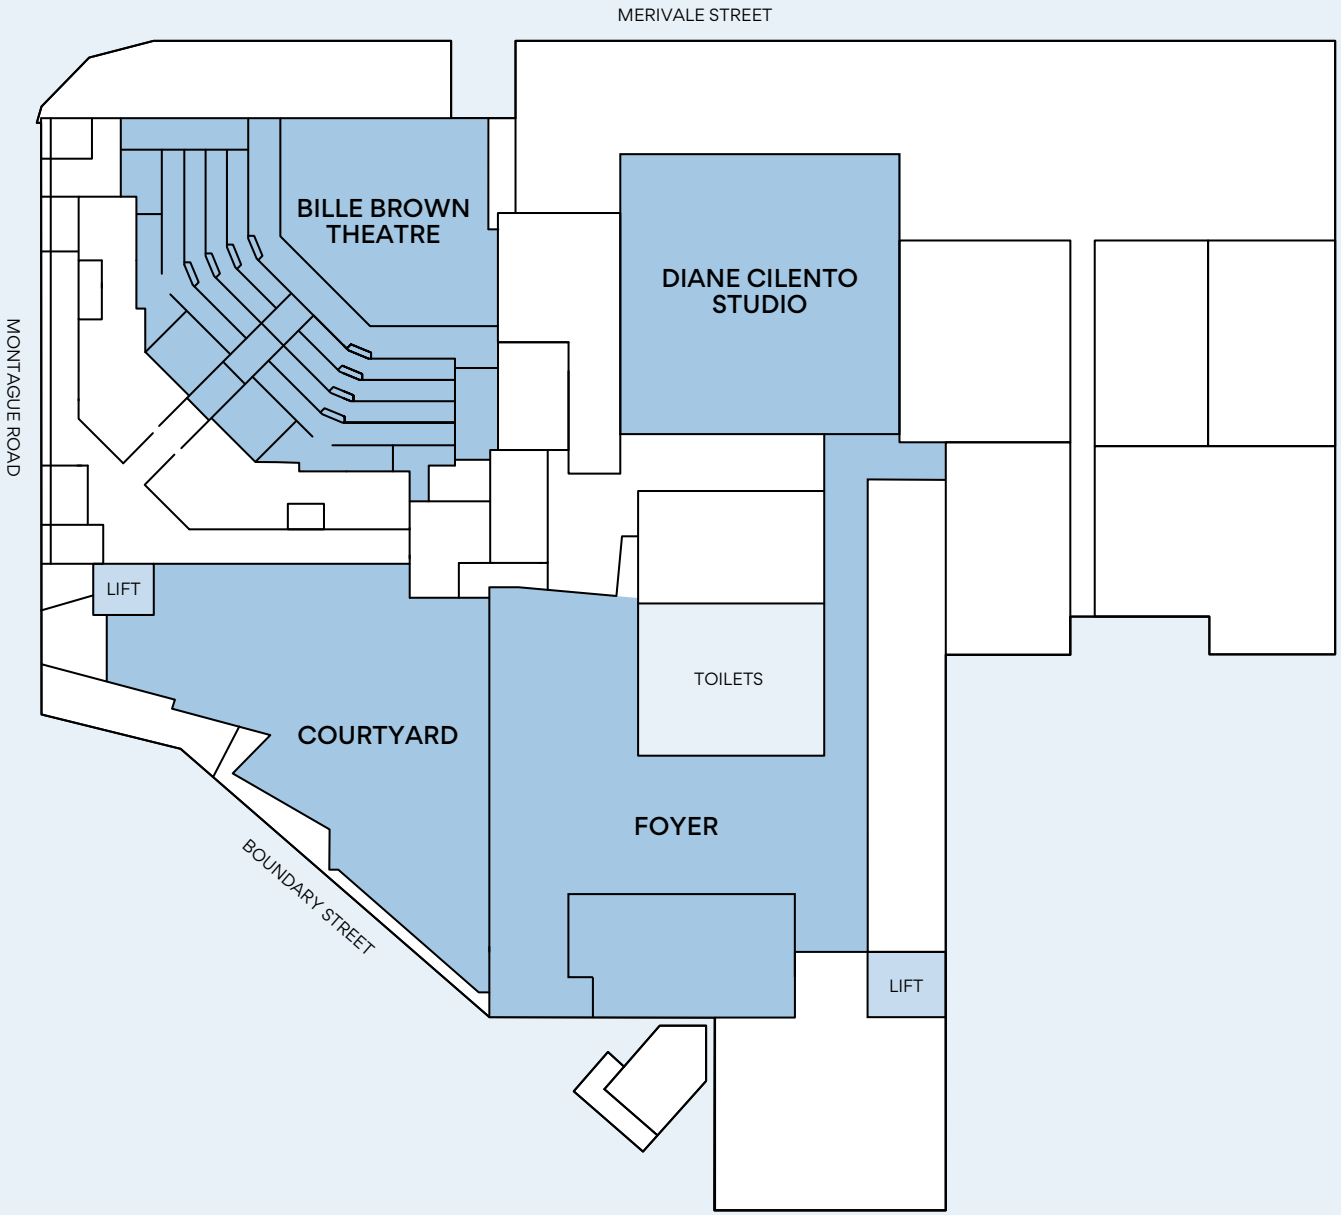

For groups of up to 100, this functional rehearsal space can be used for company workshops, health and fitness groups, auditions, rehearsals, professional development programs and cocktail functions.

Foyer & Courtyard

For groups of up to 450, the Queensland Theatre Company Foyer and Courtyard lets you blur the line between outdoor and indoor. The space features exposed wooden beams, polished concrete floors and doors that fold back to provide a seamless transition to a large, private courtyard. The Foyer comes equipped with a fully functional bar, professional sound system and free Wi-Fi. This space is perfect for large corporate functions, cocktail parties and networking conferences.
